WHY: Dena A Coy was the FIRST residential program in the United States designed to treat pregnant women with addictions and prevent the effects of fetal alcohol syndrome. It was also the first to consider children under the age of three for admission with their mother. Today, Dena A Coy remains the ONLY program in Alaska to provide comprehensive residential and outpatient services to meet the specific needs of pregnant and parenting women.

Established in 1982, Southcentral Foundation's (SCF) mission is to work together with the Native Community to achieve wellness through health and related services. The nonprofit health care affiliate of Cook Inlet Region Inc. (CIRI), SCF has grown in its 27 years, from a single dental clinic to an internationally recognized, award-winning health care organization that employs more than 1,400 people and manages more than 60 health care programs and services.
